

Powers Properties is a family run agency, providing a personalized approach and establishing long-term relationships using our knowledge, network and expertise to open the doors to a unique and luxurious world of Monaco and the French Riviera. Powers Properties provides assistance with all aspects of ownership or tenancy, managing all administrative and public utilities. Our International team offers reliability and confidentiality of the highest quality.

Mike Powers Director of the agency

Mike Powers has lived in Monaco for more than 50 years as an innovative businessman and project designer. Mike's career began in the United States as a real estate broker. Later, he launched a chain of restaurants in the US and Europe, including "Le Texan" in Monaco and Paris. He also created Monte Carlo Entertainment to organize professional and charitable sporting events, including the "Pro Celebrity Golf Tournament" and the "Pro Celebrity Tennis Tournament", notable for their great success. After many years in the entertainment business garnering many friendships and connections, Mike returned to his first passion—real estate, creating Powers Properties. Mike has passionately assembled a team of professionals that share his ethics of trust, transparency, and dedication to the highest quality of service to clients.
